THIS WEEK AT GRIFFIN ROTARY

Wallace Inducted as 93rd President

Wallace

Griffin Rotary launched its 93rd year in Rotary with Thursday's induction of Janice Wallace as our 93rd President. Howard Wallace kicked off the events by acknowledging that there had always been a lineage of leadership in our Club with several sons following their fathers as presidents. But, he proudly noted that this was the very first father-daughter lineage. Emily and Laura Wallace were also on hand to share in the day's events. Before passing the gavel to Janice, President Allen Edwards said that it had been an honor and a privilege to serve as Club President this year. He thanked a number of Rotarians who helped make the year a huge success in following the mandate of the RI Presidential Theme of, "Be a Gift to the World." Assistant District Governor Ed Outlaw then did the honors of administering the oath of the presidency to Janice. Past President Allen then placed the Rotary Jewel necklace (a gift from the Blackburn Rotary Club) about President Janice's neck, and the two exchanged items symbolic of the changing of the guard (lapel pins, scarf and tie, gavel, etc.).

Pres. Janice even accepted the Rotary tiara and scepter offered by William Wilson on behalf of the Club. ADG Ed Outlaw then administered the oath of office to the incoming Board members. And, Pres. Janice took the podium to show images of her recent participation in the RI Convention in Seoul, Korea. She also ventured to China for a brief visit after the meeting. She unveiled the banner with the Presidential Theme, "Rotary Serving Humanity," chosen by RI President John F. Germ, and District Governor Raymond Ray's District 6900 Theme, "Dare to Be Better." President Janice promised, "I will be here to encourage all of us to dare to be a little better." She plans to recognize Rotarians from our Club who dare to be better with certificates acknowledging their contributions. She awarded Past President Allen with the very first certificate for his commitment to the Club and its mission during his presidency. She then rang the bell ending her first meeting as President saying, "Go forth and dare to be awesome."

OUTSTANDING COMMITTEE SERVICE Hunt Cup Awarded

President Allen Edwards presented the Hunt Cup to Josh Messer for his outstanding service as chair of the Scrapbook Committee. The Hunt Cup has been annually awarded to the committee demonstrating outstanding service since 1937. Congratulations to Josh and his committee!

Howard Wallace was all smiles as daughter Janice was inducted as President.
